

Metal Finisher

Job Description

A Metal Finisher is responsible for following finishing procedures for customer-supplied product; equipment operation and safety requirements as documented in the J & L Dimensional Services, Inc. Quality System.

General Duties and Responsibilities

- Know, understand, and follow applicable information outlined in the J&L; Quality Manual and J&L; Employee Handbook.
- Follow all safety measures including wearing appropriate PPE in designated areas.
- Read and follow written and verbal instructions with assistance.
- Read and understand customer-supplied work instructions with assistance.
- Read and understand activity instructions with assistance.
- Perform finishing skills as required by customer-supplied work instructions with assistance.
- Understand and operate level 1 pin gauges, snap gauges, and templates.
- Verify quality of work, work to tolerances, recognize defects and reroute nonconforming customer-supplied products.
- Report any nonconforming product.
- Accurately document reporting criteria.
- Work quickly, yet accurately, to meet schedules.
- Perform other duties as required.

Qualifications and Training Required

- Manually adept
- Able to lift and hold 50+ lbs throughout the duration of a shift
- Capable of multitasking
- Able to work in an environment with constant noise levels
- Works well independently or as part of a team
- Able to work sitting approximately 50% of the time and standing/lifting approximately 50% of the time

Other Information

Type: Full-Time

Education: High school diploma or equivalent (Preferred)

License: Valid driver's license (Required)

Language: English (Required)

Work Authorization: United States (Required)

Shift: Monday–Friday, 7:00 AM – 3:00 PM